

POLICE ELECTED FOR FOUR YEARS

Personnel of Petersburg Force Announced by Commissioners.

HUSTINGS COURT MEETS

Thirty-four Confederate Veterans Will Visit Springfield.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North 5th Street, Petersburg, Va., June 16. The Board of Police Commissioners met last night and elected the full police corps for the four years' term beginning July 1. The officers of the corps were all re-elected as follows: Chief, R. F. Ragland; Lieutenant, John J. Donahue; First Sergeant, John E. Tiltus; Second Sergeant, J. L. Payne; Detectives, John J. Heelan and David P. Eanes.

The names of the privates were not announced until today. The list of those selected is as follows: A. T. Aldridge, J. T. Avery, George A. Brister, W. T. Belcher, A. F. Cameron, J. T. Clayton, A. L. Fink, R. M. Gordon, W. A. Goodwin, W. A. Gallien, J. M. Heelan, C. L. Hubbard, W. C. Hudgens, Isaac Hall, L. M. McGee, C. H. Meunier, R. B. Owen, Joshua Pritchett, Marcus Sate, J. M. Stewart, C. W. Williams, J. M. Vaughan.

Two of the present members dropped have seen service on the corps for many years. The Hustings Court opened its June term today, but transacted no business, adjourning over until tomorrow, when the case of Junius A. Williamson, who has been sentenced to a term of four years and six months in the penitentiary for bigamy, is to be placed on trial for forgery. The charge of wife-murder is still pending to be heard at the July term. Williamson's first wife, whom he deserted, is living in Texas. His second wife died on the 9th of June of last year, as is alleged, of poison administered by her husband.

Personal Notes. Miss Nettie Sue Hale and James William Carr, both of this city, were married last night at the residence of Mrs. D. E. Nunnally, on West Tabb Street, the Rev. F. W. Moore officiating. It was a quiet, pretty wedding, though many relatives and friends were present. Miss Maggie Hale, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor, and E. G. Williams was best man. The bride wore a dress of white organdy and carried white carnations. The parlors were very tastefully decorated.

Miss Annie May Fittz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Fittz and Edward Pittz Woodroff, both of this city, were married this morning in Washington by the Rev. Samuel H. Green. President McKee of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, President

Johnson, of the Norfolk and Western Railway, and a number of prominent officials of the two roads passed west through this city from Norfolk this morning in a special car. The party did not leave the car here, and stopped only long enough for the engine to take on water.

Mrs. P. W. Luck, of Barton Heights, Richmond, and Mrs. R. F. Ledbetter, of South Richmond, are guests of Mrs. J. S. Pollard on Byrne Street.

General News. Thad Smith, a white citizen, was fined $20 and required to give a good behavior bond in the penalty of $500 by the Police Justice this morning for disorderly conduct and resisting a police officer. The officer was bitten in two places by Smith.

Frank Johnson (negro), from North Carolina, got what was coming to him in the Police Court this morning for getting drunk and "shooting up" Brown's Alley yesterday and scaring the residents out of their wits. He was fined $25 for carrying a pistol, $20 for shooting it in the street and sent to jail for thirty days.

The closing exercises of St. Joseph's (Catholic) Academy were held yesterday, and distinctions and prizes were awarded. The past year was the most successful in the history of the academy.

Thirty-five Confederate veterans of A. P. Hill Camp will join the Wilcox Post, G. A. R., of Springfield, Mass., in the celebration of the National Independence Day, wearing the Confederate uniform.

Mrs. Christiana B. Pritchett, seventy-two years old, widow of W. B. Pritchett, died yesterday afternoon at her home on New Street. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. C. B. Williamson and Miss Indiana W. Pritchett, both of this city.

Re. A. Gentry, of Altoona, Pa., has been appointed manager of the Petersburg Gas Company, to succeed E. C. Pond, resigned, who held that position for some years.

Joseph Clyde Lynch, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Lynch, died this morning at the home of his parents on Pearl Street. He was an exceptionally bright boy.

CHANGES IN FACULTY. Elections by Washington and Lee Trustees at Final Meeting.

Lexington, Va., June 16.—The board of trustees at Washington and Lee University held its final meeting yesterday. The resignation of Judge W. P. Houston, owing to his failing health, was accepted as a member, and Paul M. Penick, of Lexington, was elected his successor.

The chair of modern languages was divided, and Dr. La Warr R. Easter, of Randolph-Macon College, was elected Professor of Romance Languages. Professor Thomas J. Farrar, remaining at the head of Germanic languages.

Dr. W. H. Pollock, late of the University of Alabama, has been elected instructor in physical education, and adjunct professor of biology.

CANDIDATES CAST LOTS. Mr. Bargamin Draws Ballot for Mayoralty of Bedford City.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bedford City, Va., June 16.—The tie between Nelson Sale and Paul Bargamin for the position of Mayor in the election of Tuesday, was decided this afternoon by casting lots, according to the law providing for such conditions. A vote was drawn at random from the ballot box, which contained the name of Mr. Bargamin as the choice for Mayor on that ticket, which by previous agreement settled the contest.

Unless this decision is contested by Mr. Sale, Mr. Bargamin will enter upon the third term as Mayor. His record has been good, especially in the preservation of order, and many important public improvements have been made during his administration.

Telephone Service for Farmers. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., June 16.—An important farmers' telephone line will soon be connected with the telephone exchange of the Southern Bell Telephone Company in Danville. The line will be constructed by B. W. Dodson, of Bachelor's Hall, and he has signed a contract to connect with the Southern Bell Company. It will extend five miles from Danville in the direction of Design, and when completed will furnish service to several prominent farmers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Suffolk, Va., June 16.—Governor Mann tomorrow will address the graduation class of one at the Second District Agricultural High School, at Dover. He will be entertained at luncheon by the girls of the domestic science class, whose teacher is Miss Ella Agnew, a graduate of a college in Southern Africa.

Cider With 9 Per Cent. Alcohol. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Suffolk, Va., June 16.—In response to numerous complaints as to the strength of apple cider sold in Suffolk, a dry town, County Sheriff Alexander H. Baker sent several samples to the State Chemist for analysis. Some parts showed nearly 9 per cent. of alcohol, or twice the strength of beer.

Negro Killed by Train. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wadesboro, N. C., June 16.—An unknown negro was struck by a work train of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad this morning at the bridge crossing the Pee Dee River, and he was instantly killed. The body was badly mutilated.

New Railroad Incorporated. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., June 16.—The Rockingham Railroad Company, capital $150,000, was chartered yesterday for the construction of a railroad from Roanoke, No. 1, Richmond county, to Gibson, Scotland county, via Rockingham, a distance of twenty-four miles. J. P. Leak, W. C. Leak and M. L. Hinson are among the incorporators.

Big Contract for Good Roads. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., June 16.—Work on the new roads to be constructed in Spotsylvania county will begin July 5, the contracts having all been signed up. The work will be under the supervision of an engineer from the State Good Roads Department. One hundred thousand dollars is to be expended.

Bonds for Streets and Roads. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lexington, Va., June 16.—The citizens of Lexington yesterday voted their approval of the issuing of $30,000 in bonds for streets and roads. There were 237 votes cast, 160 for the bond issue and 68 against. Under the charter a three-fifths vote was necessary. Twenty-eight months (three-fifths) was the result of the election.

Young Woman Attempts Suicide. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Salisbury, N. C., June 16.—Finding a bullet through her breast while in a fit of despondency, Dannie Bronegan, a young white woman, attempted to end her life at her home near here. She was revived by heroic efforts and stated that she was tired of living. Her condition is precarious.

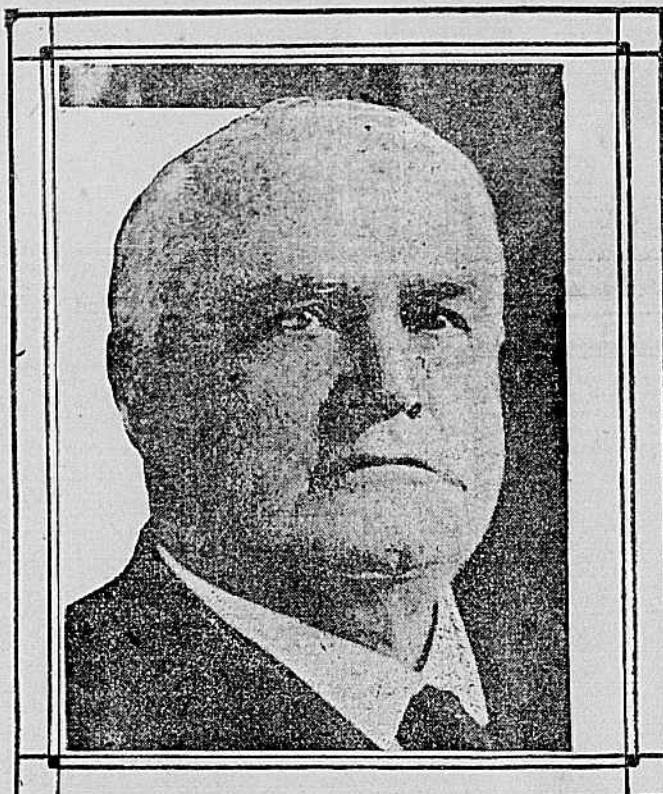

Moxie Is The Best Drink For You In Hot Weather

Sold Wherever You See a Moxie Sign

More than six million people, including thousands of physicians and their families, drank Moxie last year! Why? Because—the demand for a mild tonic has become almost universal, and in this class Moxie leads.

The sanitary conditions under which Moxie is prepared appeal to all people. All who drink Moxie say they eat better, sleep better and feel better because they use it.

ST. PETER'S ACADEMY AWARDS DIPLOMAS

Rev. Father Bowler Delivers Address to Graduates on Evils of Commercial Life—List of Honors and Promotions.

Saint Peter's Academy closed for the session with commencement exercises which were held in Cathedral Hall on Wednesday. The closing this year was regarded as one of the most successful the academy has had in years.

In the morning, premiums were awarded to the junior, intermediate and primary classes, the seniors holding their exercises at night. An interesting program was presented by the pupils, which consisted of vocal selections and recitations. The valedictory was delivered by Charles J. Shaughnessy.

Rev. Father Bowler, vicar-general of the Richmond Diocese, delivered the final address to the graduates, and his timely and appropriate advice was greatly appreciated by his auditors. He dwelt particularly upon the evils and vices that attend commercial life, and pointed out how they may be overcome.

Nine young men were awarded diplomas for general proficiency, each of whom had earned special distinctions. The oratorical contest was spirited, and was won by Bernard J.
